Who are we? New York State Bar Association and the International Section

The New York State Bar Association (NYSBA) is the largest voluntary state bar organization in the United States and has members across the globe that have a nexus to New York law.

The International Section is one of NYSBA's most active sections having over 1,700 members internationally with chapters in more than 70 countries worldwide and is NYSBA's global representative and international advocate for the rule of law.

In addition, the NYSBA International Section brings members together to discuss and influence the resolution of key legal practice issues before local, state, national and international policy makers. Members include legal professionals from major international law firms, multi-national corporations, and other organizations that influence, and are influenced by, international law.

What will I get from participating?

The Spring Meeting offers participants opportunities to:

- listen to and participate in discussions with specialists on matters concerning the war in Ukraine,
- show their support to the people of Ukraine and those who work to make Russia accountable for its crimes,
- become a member of the International Section of the NYSBA and help develop the Section's footprint in the region,
- exchange knowledge and experience, for building meaningful relationships and for showing our unity against injustice.
